Letter of Recommendation

I take great pleasure in recommending Vidya Gangaswamy for Master's degree in your esteemed university whom I have known during her graduate course. I was her professor for Object Oriented programming with C++ and Database Management Systems. During the coursework, I got ample opportunity to estimate her theoretical and practical capabilities.

She has shown interest in her subjects right from the beginning. Her Knowledge of the fundamentals, analytical ability and effortless assimilation of concepts accompanied by her assiduous efforts are commendable. Besides being diligent in her academics, she has shown impeccable command over wide range of subjects.

High grasping power and ability to reason logically seem to come naturally to her. Her punctuality and hard-working nature, kept her ahead of her peers which resulted her in being the topper of the class. She also maintains a very good rapport with her peers and is a great team worker. Furthermore, she is extremely articulate in speech and expression and bears a good persuasive and mature personality.

With her emotional stability, intellectual capacity and research oriented approach I feel that she will be successful in higher levels of education. With consistently good records in all her semesters displays her perseverance and keen interest in pursuing higher studies and inclination towards research oriented study, I strongly recommend Vidya Gangaswamy candidature for the Master's program at your reputed University.
